

Table of Contents

I. The Text of the Declaration

- “Declaration of Independence of the State of Israel” (English).
- “Declaration of Independence of the State of Israel” (Hebrew).

II. The Military Context

- Benny Morris, 1948 (2008), pp. 167-179.

III. The Diplomatic Context

- Moshe Shertok, “Letter to Robert Lovett” (February 22, 1948).
- Clark Clifford, “Memorandum to President Truman” (March 8, 1948).
- J.L. Austin, “Telegram to George Marshall” (March 13, 1948).
- Warren Austin, “Statement Made Before the Security Council” (March 19, 1948).
- Robert Lovett, “Letter to James Forrestal” (April 23, 1948).
- George Marshall, “Memorandum of Conversation” (May 12, 1948).
- Harry Truman, Memoirs (1955), selection.

IV. Political Decisions

- “Minutes from Israeli National Council Meeting” (May 12, 1948).
- Martin Kramer, “The May 1948 Vote that Made the State of Israel,” Mosaic Magazine (April 2018).

V. The Legacy of the Declaration

- Ruth Calderon and Simon Rabinovitch, “On the Declaration of Independence as a Basic Law and the Meaning of a Jewish Nation-State,” in Defining Israel: The Jewish State, Democracy, and the Law, ed. Simon Rabinovitch (2018).