

The world has long been aware of the systematic looting of the Nazi regime and has ascribed “genocidal larceny” to its long list of war crimes. This year’s Asher Lecture will feature Karen Franklin, a past president of the Jewish Museum association, who will unravel some of the still unsolved mysteries of looted art of the holocaust period. Recent discoveries brought to light in Munich and the Netherlands only underscore what pervasive travesties have still not been resolved.

Please join us not only at 6:30 pm on Friday, December 13th, but also at Saturday’s Morning Minyan at 10 am when Ms. Franklin will make a second presentation on “The Art of Jewish Genealogy.” Co-sponsored with our Sisterhood, she will explore the venerated Ansbacher Clan as a model for uncovering jewels that are part of every family’s legacy.

There are several wonderful musical events coming up in the next few months for you to participate in. I would like to devote this month’s article to telling you a little about each:

On Sunday, December 15th at 3:00, local singer Eliana Kissner will be performing a concert of “contemporary East meets West” Jewish music. Eliana is the lead singer of Safra, a Jewish Middle Eastern
